Innovative Bay Area Collaborations: PLUS Leadership Initiative City-School Team Presentations

- Emeryville: Emeryville Center of Community Life
- San Francisco: HOPE SF Neighborhood and School Revitalization
- Richmond: Nystrom United ReVitalization Effort (NURVE)

Luncheon Keynote: How Federal Policy Is Setting the Stage for Local Innovation

Carol Galante, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Multifamily Housing Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

State and Regional Policy Discussion: Supporting Local Innovation

- California Department of Education: Vision for future innovative school facilities
- Association of Bay Area Governments: Regional efforts for complete communities
- Graduate School of Education: Building aligned systems for childcare through college

Closing Keynote

Dr. Anthony Smith, Superintendent, Oakland Unified School District

Register NOW!

http://www.regonline.com/PLUS2009

$35 registration fee

For more information: 510-642-7155 or arielb@berkeley.edu

Visit our website at: http://citiesandschools.berkeley.edu

The PLUS Leadership Initiative, funded by the Walter and Elise Haas Fund, is designed to prepare civic and educational leaders in the Bay Area to develop collaborative, mutually-beneficial policies and practices that are child- and family-centered, and lead to improved public education quality and more vibrant, healthy neighborhoods.