

The PLUS Leadership Initiative Fall 2008 Institute:

SAVE THE DATE !

Community–Oriented School Facilities for Vibrant Communities: Public-Private Partnerships, Green Design, and Joint Use

Wednesday, September 17, 2008
Preservation Park, Oakland, CA

The PLUS (Planning and Learning United for Systems-Change) Leadership Initiative is designed to prepare civic and educational leaders in the Bay Area to develop collaborative, mutually beneficial policies and practices that are child- and family-centered.

Our fall institute focuses on strategies to create innovative community-oriented school facilities.

Preliminary Agenda:

- 8:30 PLUS Partners Breakfast (invitation only)
- 9:30 Welcome
Deborah McKoy, Executive Director, Center for Cities & Schools
- 10:15 Morning Panel
Lessons from the Field: Promising Models of Joint Development and Joint Use Partnerships
Jeff Vincent, Deputy Director, Center for Cities & Schools, Chair
 ♦ Invited communities include: Clovis, Merced, Santa Monica, San Francisco
- 12:30 Luncheon Keynote
Planning Sustainable Schools for Children and Communities
TBD
- 1:30 Afternoon Workshop
Brokering the Deal: Nuts & Bolts of Developing Community-Oriented School Facilities
Mary Filardo, Executive Director, 21st Century School Fund, Washington, DC
- 4:30 Closing Remarks
Kathleen Moore, Director, School Facilities Planning Division, California Department of Education

REGISTRATION $35 ♦ ON LINE REGISTRATION COMING SOON!

<http://citiesandschools.berkeley.edu/PLUS.html>

Special thanks to the Walter and Elise Haas Fund, the Stuart Foundation, and The BEST Collaborative