

HOPE SF:

Adult-Supported Youth Engagement in Building Equitable, Healthy, and Sustainable Communities

SF PLUS Fellow:
LeConté Dill, MPH

Re-aligning Urban Planning & Public Health

Building Healthy Communities

What is HOPE SF?

- CURRENT
- 1. HUNTERS VIEW
 - 2. POTRERO HILL
 - 3. SUNNYDALE
 - 4. WESTSIDE COURTS
- FUTURE
- 5. WESTBROOK
 - 6. HUNTERS POINT A WEST
 - 7. ALICE GRIFFITH

- Partnership between MOH and SFHA to rebuild the city's most distressed public housing sites
- Modeled after federal HOPE VI Program
- Launched in 2006

Youth Leadership for Change

Youth-Plan, Learn, Act, Now

Hope SF Youth Leadership Academy
Intern Interviews
Saturday, February 27th

A collage of photos of youth leaders. Some are holding signs with names like 'Lavon', 'P. McNair', and 'LaFae Evans'. There is also a small illustration of the Golden Gate Bridge.

PLUS Fellow's Scope of Work

Fall 2009

- Meetings
- Site Visits
- Assessment Tool

Jan-May 2010

- Series of 3 Workshops
- Technical Assistance
- Site Visits

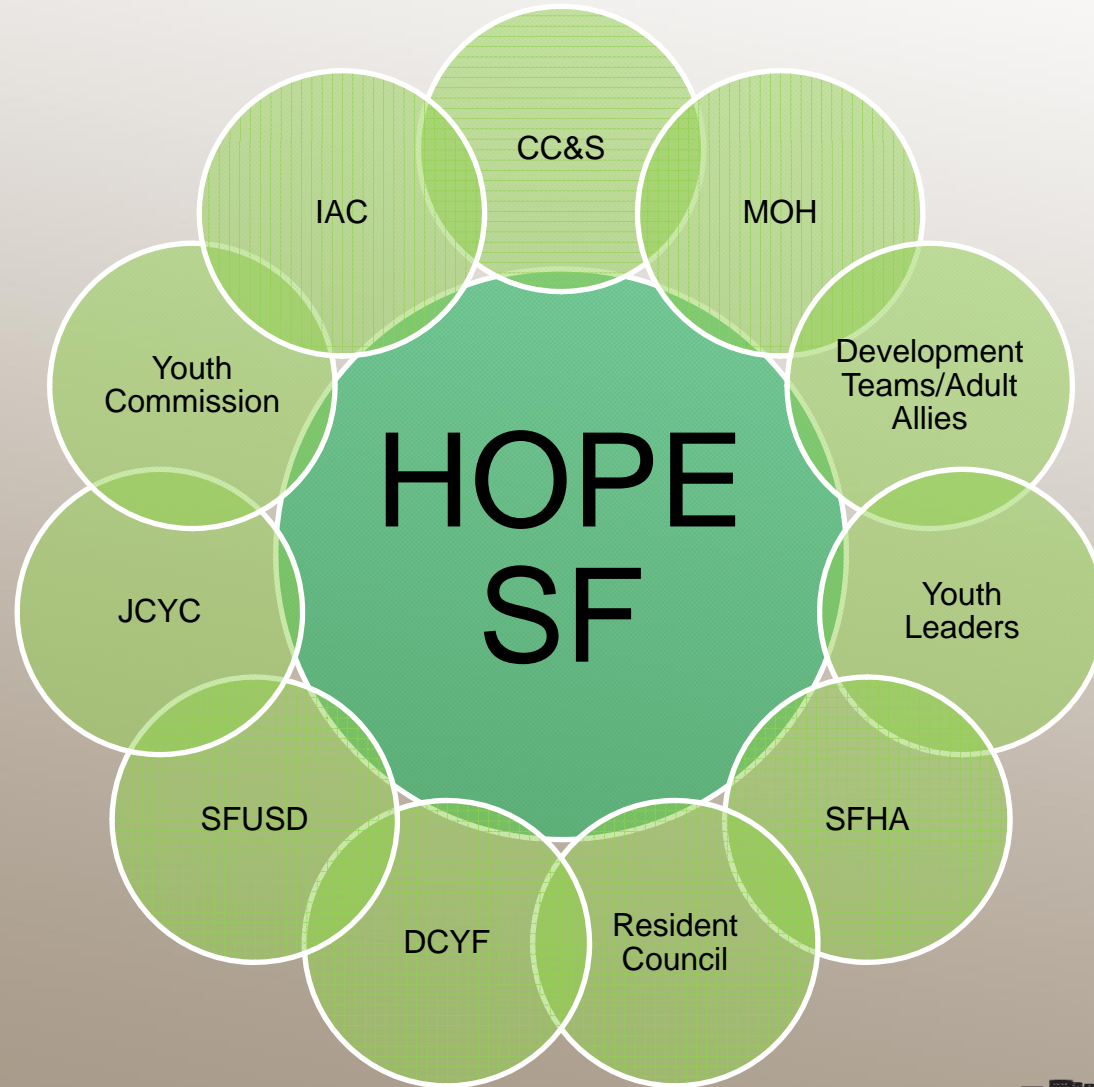

Jun 18-19,
2010

- HOPE SF Summit
- Documentation of Process/Findings

“Communities of Practice”

Development Professionals as Adult Allies

John Stewart Co.

Mercy/Related

Bridge Corp.

Em Johnson

Project Questions

- Physical and social connectivity
- Safe pathways and spaces
- Healthy eating and Active living
- Meaningful opportunities for youth engagement
- Diverse leadership in the revitalization process

Preliminary Findings

- Engaging young people in healthy redevelopment

Preliminary Findings

- Capacity-building with adult allies

Action Steps

Acknowledgments

- Amy Tharpe & Kaila Price, Mayors Office of Housing
- September Jarrett & Yahya Abdul-Mateen, Inter-Agency Council
- Youth Leaders & Adult Allies at HOPE SF Sites
- Deborah McKoy & Ariel Bierbaum, Center for Cities and Schools
- PLUS Fellows

