

HOPE SF AT HUNTERS VIEW

A Systemic Approach to School Improvement & Housing Development

BACKGROUND

- Hunters View
 - 267-unit public housing project
 - Constructed in 1956
 - Selected for revitalization in 2005
- HOPE SF
 - Integrated model
- Key Stakeholder Groups
 - John Stewart Co. (developer)
 - Mayor's Office of Housing
 - San Francisco Unified School District
 - Hunters View Residents' Association

MAP OF FUTURE HOPE SF SITES

SFHA MAP OF HOPE SF SITES

CURRENT

- 1. HUNTERS VIEW
- 2. POTRERO HILL
- 3. SUNNYDALE
- 4. WESTSIDE COURTS

FUTURE

- 5. WESTBROOK
- 6. HUNTERS POINT A WEST
- 7. ALICE GRIFFITH

OPPORTUNITY

Unique opportunity to take a systemic approach to educational improvement and housing redevelopment, aiming to lift housing, security, and educational quality for all students and families.

- All families need and deserve the opportunity to have safe, high quality housing and neighborhoods as well as good educational options.
- Creating vibrant mixed income communities demands high quality educational options for all families.

5/3/2010

CONTINUUM OF EDUCATION

5/3/2010

- “0-25” perspective
- Systems building framework

KEY COMPONENTS & RECOMMENDATIONS

Ensure access for students to high quality schools and educational resources

Teacher Quality

Educational Leadership

Research-based curriculum and reform strategy

Parental Involvement

Align community and regional resources and assets to educational plan

Social Services

Community Engagement

Transportation infrastructure

Provide high quality school facilities and physical connections to the surrounding neighborhood

Local school building

Joint Use

Physical relationship between school facilities and housing development

5/3/2010

THE END.