

Y-PLAN as a Tool for Young People to Re-imagine and Transform Cities

Y-PLAN Project Highlights

- Innovative urban transportation for youth
- Digital apps to assist people with disabilities navigate cities
- Creating healthy food access in immigrant communities
- Public art as a tool to bridge two communities

Y-PLAN City Partnerships

- Berkeley
- Dallas
- Detroit
- New Orleans
- New York City
- Oakland
- Richmond
- San Francisco
- Washington, DC
- Global projects from Japan, Indonesia and Sub-Saharan Africa

Sunday, May 18
6:00 - 8:30

Gold Room, Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC

Monday, May 19
9:00 - 4:00

Hamilton Crowne Plaza
Washington, DC

AGENDA

Sunday: A Year of Action and Reflection

- Invitational Fellows Forum
- Skill Building Workshop: Integrated Curriculum Project and Authentic Assessment
- Y-PLAN Youth and Adult Ally Poster Presentations

Monday: Going To Scale

- Welcome and Keynote: Pedro Noguera
- Showcase: Lessons from the Field
- Adult Ally Panel: Y-PLAN Civic & School Leaders
- Luncheon Panel: Leveraging Private and Public Networks and Resources
- Skill Building Workshop: Cultivating Civic Partnerships
- Closing and Reception

Event is free but space is limited—Register now: <http://tinyurl.com/Y-PLAN-Summit/>

Y-PLAN (Youth - Plan, Learn, Act, Now) is an educational strategy to inform local community development processes and align educational reform.